Chief of Police Collins to Order All Bawdy House Keepers to Leave Paducah or Cease Their Business

Another Woman Charged With Selling Beer at Dollar a Bottle.

Decides Mayor and Chief That They Don't Intend to Quit Practice.

Two warrants sworn out against Jessie Leach, of Twelfth street and Biederman avenue, one for selling liquor and the other for keeping a disorderly house, mark the beginning of a crusade to rid Paducah of her houses of ill-fame. The warrants were sworn out by John Smith, who said he could produce witnesses to prove she sold whisky, beer and ale. The names of the witnesses were taken.

Mayor Smith and Chief Collins have held repeated consultations about these resorts, since they were driven off Kentucky avenue and scattered. It was decided several months ago that they should not be allowed to sell liquors, and a list of those holding government licenses was secured. They were notified to discontinue, and there was an exodus of the women. It was thought this would put an end to their aggressive mischiefs. Witnesses in this Leach case, who claim to have paid a dollar a bottle for beer, that retails at ten cents, have families dependent on them; and young boys, who would be barred from saloons can go to the house and secure refreshments at exorbitant prices.

Recently complaints have come in, especially from the neighborhood where the Leach house, and the one, whose inmates were arrested yesterday, are located, and the mayor and Chief Collins decided that they would carry the crusade further and order all houses closed. Those, who are known to the police will be notified that they must close their doors for good and get out. Chief Collins is in hearty accord with the mayor in this matter, and will strictly carry out the purpose. He has been diligent of late in stopping disorder, where it became apparent.

BONDS N. G.

Upon investigation it has been ascertained that $100,000 worth of bonds issued January 5, 1891, and delivered to the Paducah, Tennessee & Alabama railroad, which was succeeded by the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad, in payment for $100,000 worth of stock in the railroad, is without value. The investigation was started by Mayor Smith, who wrote to W. J. Hills, superintendent of the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis railroad. A reply has been received from Claude Waller, general counsel for the railroad, who says that the stock has been wiped out by the foreclosure sale, through which the property was sold for the payment of the bonded debt of the company. The bonds were issued by the P. T. & A. railroad in order to construct its road, but in default in the payment of interest the decree of foreclosure was entered July 10, 1895, and the property was sold to J. W. Phillips, who disposed of it.

I. C. Shops Increase

Direct assurance that the Illinois Central railroad shops will open up was given out today by A. H. Egan, superintendent of the Louisville division, who arrived early this morning from Memphis. Mr. Egan said there will be an increase in all departments July 1, and he intimated that as business becomes better the force will be increased more. Already an increase has been made in the force. July 1 over ten per cent of the men who were laid off will return to work, and work at the shops will begin to hum again.

State Line Road Upheld

Magistrate J. J. Bleich has decided that the old State Line road is a public highway, and that the obstruction placed by A. Vanfield must be removed. A low fine will be assessed, unless it is the desire of Vanfield to take the case to a higher court. The road leads to the mouth of Clark's river. The warrant was sworn out by John Thompson, county road supervisor, to compel Vanfield to remove a fence from across the highway.

NAVAL RESERVES SICK.

Pensacola, June 25.—Louisiana naval reserves became sick and abandoned their cruise to Havana and Isle de Luzon, steaming back to New Orleans. The boys go home by rail.

INCREASE RATES OF HOUSE BILL ON NUMBER OF ITEMS

Washington, June 25.—Debates on the tariff continued today.

A short time before adjournment last night at 7 o'clock the senate returned to consideration of the schedules of the tariff bill, after devoting the greater part of the day listening to prepared speeches, and adopted amendments increasing the duty on shoes from 15 to 20 per cent ad valorem and increasing the duty on sole leather from 5 to 10 per cent ad valorem, the lower figure representing the house rate in each case.

During the day there were three prepared speeches, all of them being at considerable length. Beginning when the senate convened at 10 o'clock, Beveridge talked for about four hours and was followed by Bailey at almost as great length. Newlands was the last of the orators of the day and he had not long surrendered the floor when the senate adjourned.

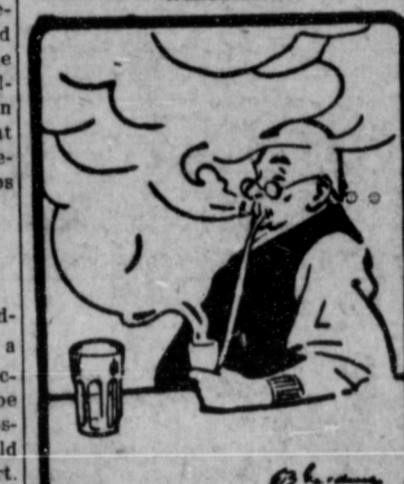

The theme of Beveridge's discourse was the amendment proposed by himself regarding the size of tobacco packages. He contended that while the size of the packages had been reduced during the Spanish war with the end in view of compelling the purchaser to pay the war tax, those sizes have never been restored nor prices reduced notwithstanding the removal of the tax, thus plainly giving the tobacco manufacturers and especially the tobacco trust the advantage of the tax even though it has not been in operation for about nine years. He declared that the trust had influenced legislation for this purpose, and asserted that it was being benefited to the extent of many millions of dollars a year.

Newlands gave his attention to the income tax question devoting special consideration to the president's resolution for a corporation earnings tax. He discussed at length the legislation of 1898 providing for a tax upon the gross receipts of oil refiners, on which the Spreckels case was decided by the supreme court and which was relied upon by the president as a precedent for the proposed corporation tax. He pointed out especially that the law of 1898 was applicable, not to corporations alone, but to every person, firm, company and corporation carrying on such business and suggested that a tax applying only to corporations might violate the constitutional requirement of uniformity.

Remarkable Operation

Detroit, Mich., June 25.—Eminent surgeons from all parts of the country, attending the American institute of homeopathy, today witnessed one of the most difficult operations known performed at the Grace hospital by Dr. Fisher, of Chicago. The bones of a child's head grew tight prematurely, closing what is known as the "soft spots" and resulting in lack of room for the brains. If uncorrected it would cause mental deficiency. The operation re-separated the skull bones.

CLOUDY

Partly cloudy; continued warm; probably local thunder showers tonight and Saturday.

FREEMAN BURIED TODAY—STOMACH TO BE EXAMINED

Judge Lightfoot Intimates Someone is Suspected of Aiding Suicide.

Morphine Mixed With Some Other Poison.

IS BELIEF OF PHYSICIANS

The funeral and burial of George Freeman, the colored murderer who committed suicide yesterday, were held this afternoon. The body was turned over to the Rev. Father H. A. Connolly, and the funeral service was private. Even the hour was not given out as Father Connolly desired to evade the curiosity seekers. The burial was in Mt. Carmel cemetery on the Mayfield road.

It is the belief of the physicians that George Freeman took a mixed drug, as in the experience of the physicians they could not recall a drug that had the similar effect. There is no doubt that the negro took an opiate, probably morphine, mixed with another poison. Last night the stomach, when it was taken out, was swollen. No attempt was made to examine it by the physicians, but it was sealed and sent to Louisville in charge of Dr. Nollett. It will take two days for the examination, as a complete analysis was ordered. The heart was extracted, but nothing could be found to indicate the poison. The heart was in good condition.

County Physician L. E. Young worked heroically in an effort to save Freeman. He was in the cell from 6:30 o'clock in the morning until Freeman died in the afternoon, and last night assisted in performing the autopsy. He was assisted by Dr. Horace Rivers, City Physician W. J. Bass and Dr. J. T. Reddick. Patrol Driver Thad Terrell assisted the doctors all day in the effort to rouse Freeman.

Sheriff Ogilvie this morning returned the death warrant with the official notice that he was prevented from executing the warrant because of Freeman's suicide.

For the present the scaffold will remain standing in the jail yard. Sheriff Ogilvie says he has not decided whether to let it stand until next court. Several murderers are in jail awaiting trial, and there is a possibility of a death sentence, so that the gallows might be used after all. So far as could be ascertained Freeman was the first condemned man in McCracken county to cheat the gallows. Poison and weapons have been found in cells, but the prisoner was never successful in the use. During the term of Circuit Clerk Joe A. Miller as county jailer, Jesse Brown, colored, was hanged. Several days before the execution a pistol was found concealed in his cell. The weapon had been smuggled in by a trusty.

When Freeman was transferred from the main corridor to the private cell he was given new clothes and not allowed to take anything from his old cell. By this precaution Jailer Eaker felt secure that Freeman would not kill himself.

The inquest will not be held by Coroner Eaker until an analysis of the stomach is made. County Judge Lightfoot said there would be an investigation to determine who is guilty of smuggling in the poison. He intimated that some one is suspected.

Freeman's Death.

After lingering over ten hours George Freeman died yesterday afternoon about 4:45 o'clock. The end was not unexpected, as shortly after

WHIRLWIND CAMPAIGN TO END IN BIG RALLY.

The whirlwind educational campaign, which will be conducted through the county Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be closed with a rally at the Woman's club on Thursday. The plans for the rally will be completed at a meeting that will be held tomorrow afternoon. It is probable that the meeting will continue all day.

Hon. McKenzie Moss, a prominent attorney of Bowling Green, will be the speaker, although a number of local speakers will urge the necessity of having better county schools. It is expected that a large attendance will attend the rally.

W. R. Davis, who is president of the McCracken County School Improvement league, has requested that every officer of the league attend the rally. A short session of the county school board will be held Thursday before the rally.

One Heat Prostration is Reported

WHOLE COUNTRY IS SWELTERING AND SUFFERING

Many Deaths in New York, Where Thousands Sleep on Coney Island Sand.

Today the mercury indicates that it is the hottest day of this summer so far. The thermometer read 96 degrees at 1 o'clock this afternoon. Yesterday was warm, but it was two degrees cooler than today. It is one degree warmer than any other day this year. The lowest today was 78 degrees, which is 4 degrees warmer than the lowest temperature yesterday.

The first heat victim in Paducah was little Miss Anna May McKinney, the 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. McKinney, 1034 Clay street. She was in a serious condition yesterday afternoon and last night. Today she is resting easy and is out of danger. She was taken ill down in the city, but returned to the home of her grandmother, where she became too ill to return home.

For Two or Three Days More.

Washington, June 25.—The hot wave now holding in its grip that part of the country east of the Mississippi will continue unabated for two or three days, when indications are that rains generally will produce lowering temperature, according to the weather bureau reports. The prevailing temperature over the country averages about 90 degrees, and only in a few places have rains relieved the conditions.

Heat Kills One.

Cleveland, O., June 25.—One man is dead and six are prostrated as a result of the heat here. The mercury marked 86 degrees at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Hospitals Are Full.

New York, June 25.—The fourth day of unabated heat that has afflicted this city found the hospitals crowded with cases of prostration. At a late hour there had been recorded 50 cases of mortality and three suicides. The mercury went to 92 officially at 3 o'clock. Last night at Coney Island thousands were sleeping on the sand.

AN ANGLO-GERMAN ALLIANCE PROPOSED

Berlin, June 25.—Maximilian Harden, famous for the exposure of immoralities in the clique of the Kaiser's court, says in his paper, Die Seekute, the time has come for Anglo-German pact, permitting Germany to seize the Congo Free State and any other territories she desires, Germany in return recognizing England's mastery of the seas throughout the world. Harden says war is the only alternative and a continuation of the present rivalry impossible.

MUST SELL MORE SEASON TICKETS TO CHAUTAUQUA

Unless 400 more season Chautauqua tickets are sold, the Chautauqua will be abandoned, say the directors. They held a meeting this morning, and found they came out a trifle less than $200 ahead, after some outstanding interest on borrowed money was paid. They expect to improve the program as much next year as it was this year, the aim being to make each succeeding season better; but this can be done only through the co-operation of the public. Between 600 and 700 tickets have been subscribed. Those who desire tickets may notify Mr. Joseph L. Friedman or Saunders A. Fowler, or leave their orders at any of the stores or banks.

Highwayman to Be Hanged.

Dallas, Tex., June 25.—The jury returned a death sentence against Bubber Roberson, a negro highwayman, who helped kill Frank Woolford, a farmer, in Dallas last October.

Washington, June 25.—The administration corporation tax amendment to the tariff bill was completed by Attorney General Wickersham and Senator Root. It will be introduced in the senate.

Ice Cream Men Leave; Tamale Men Under Ban

Hot tamale vendors must go and so must the ice cream men, who travel about the city pushing little carts selling ice cream cones for a penny and a nickel. Yesterday afternoon at a conference of the board of health, Mayor Smith, Drs. Sights and Farley and a number of peddlers, it was decided to refund all the ice cream vendors, who push the little cart, the money paid by them on their licenses—$12.85 each. Hot tamale men have not secured licenses, so the police were given instructions to warn them off the streets. Four Italian ice cream men have been given their license money and were given instructions to leave town.

This precaution was taken to protect the children, the main support of these push-cart peddlers. It was found by Drs. Farley and Sights that the majority of these peddlers live in unsanitary houses and for this reason it would be easy for them to spread disease to the children in the stuff which they handle and sell.

METHODISTS WILL HOLD TABERNACLE MEETING IN FALL

Auditorium Rink Selected and the Rev. J. D. Brown Will be Evangelist.

The Methodist pastors of the city under the lead of the Rev. J. W. Blackard, D. D., presiding elder of Paducah district Methodist churches, will begin a tabernacle meeting about September 5. The Auditorium Rink has been secured for the services. The Rev. J. D. Brown, of Arkansas, who has a national reputation as an evangelist, will do the preaching and will be assisted by Mr. Curry, a song evangelist, who is known as the "Sankney of the South." Messrs. Brown and Curry conducted a great revival at Mayfield sometime since. The various Methodist churches will plan for the meeting during the summer and will get into line for the work. There will be a large union choir to aid Mr. Curry. While the meeting will be under the supervision of Dr. Blackard and the Methodist ministers of the city, all denominations are cordially invited to take part.

May be Eastman

New York, June 25.—The police believe the murderer of Mrs. Woodill, in Maryland, was Robert E. Eastman, a former Wall street broker, who jumped a $7,500 bail after his arrest last summer, charged with obtaining money by false pretenses. The descriptions tally.

Gilbert led the professionals by 2.

Howland, of Philadelphia, was appointed treasurer of the council.

The council appointed a deputation to wait upon President Taft and ask him to intervene in the interest of two American missionaries, the Rev. Dr. William H. Morrison, and the Rev. William Henry Sheppard, who have been indicted for criminal libel in the Congo Free State, and a general resolution was adopted appealing to the governments of Great Britain and the United States to take steps to correct the abuses prevailing in the Congo.

MRS. GOULD GETS DIVORCE AND ALIMONY

JUSTICE DOWLING EXONERATES HER OF DRUNK CHARGES.

SHE WILL RECEIVE THREE THOUSAND A MONTH HEREAFTER.

New York, June 25. (Bulletin.)—Justice Dowling, deciding the Gould case this afternoon, completely exonerated Mrs. Gould of all charges and granted her separation and alimony of $3,000 a month.

Mrs. Katherine Gould in a defiant mood, Mrs. Gould resumed the stand today. Nicoll continued his cross-examination. Replying to the opening question the witness said: "I said then and say now I was never drunk in all my life."

"Then every witness who testified to your drunkenness swore falsely?" asked Nicoll.

"Absolutely," she snapped. She declared all her meetings with Farnum were to talk over theatrical business.

Asked if she and Farnum were good friends, the witness said: "We were acquaintances."

In the course of her testimony she said: "I was wretched. I had nothing to do. The management of one home was taken from me by my husband, and he didn't have enough money to improve Blue Gap farm as he wished."

She admitted having $5,000 and $10,000 a month besides hotel bills paid, but she said: "This was not much money, not nearly enough to what I wanted."

Katherine Clemmons Gould was called back to the stand for the final ordeal to explain away, if possible, the damaging testimony given by witnesses for her husband in her suit for separation and alimony of $250,000 a year.

She made a flat denial of all testimony and insinuation charging her with excessive drinking, profanity or other impropriety. She never drank to excess, never used profane language, never forgot her dignity as mistress of Castle Gould and never overstepped the bounds of propriety. Mrs. Gould declared that she never tried to hitch up a pair of mules, never ordered a tableful of dishes and food thrown from her St. Regis apartments, never referred to Dustin Farnum as "my new beau," never quarreled with her husband before company, never had a coachman's arm about her waist to hold her in her carriage seat, never became intoxicated aboard the Niagara, and never consumed two quarts of cocktails in two days.

Her meeting with Farnum was accounted for by her desire to have his advice regarding her plans to return to the stage.

ALONG FELT WANT

ing when Lem Adkins, a merchant and prominent citizen of Fredonia, was arrested in the criminal court room as an accessory in the murder of Ruef Hunter.

Court was in session and preparations were being made to impanel a jury when Adkins entered the court room as a spectator and was taken in custody. This trial is one of the most important in years. It will take several weeks to try the case.

One of the most important criminal cases to be tried in Montgomery county in years, and which will attract attention throughout this section, began today in the criminal court here, when Marcellus Rinehart was called on to answer for the murder of Ruef Hunter, which occurred in November, 1908. Two Nicholas brothers are held as accessories to the crime.

Hunter was a well known farmer of this county and member of the Dark Tobacco Growers' association. He was called to his door at midnight and shot down and his body riddled with bullets, his wife and children narrowly missing the same fate. For months the killing was shrouded in the deepest mystery. Special officers assisted the local officers in running down every clue, and finally evidence was discovered which led to the arrest of the defendants.

The murder was committed at the time night rider lawlessness was rampant in this section, and it is expected that sensational evidence will be introduced. The alleged murderers are supposed to have been members of what was known as an "inner circle" of the night rider gang, and evidence showing their oath and organization may be an important feature of the trial.

The killing of Hunter created the greatest excitement and was cold-blooded, equalling almost the murder of Capt. Rankin at Reelfoot lake. Assisting the attorney general will be Savage & Fort, who have been especially employed by Gov. Patterson to assist in the prosecution. The defendants will be represented by Judge Garner, of Springfield; J. E. Justice, of Ashland City, and F. G. Gilbert and J. D. Tyler, of this city.

Officers have been busy for two days summoning witnesses, which number over 100, and yesterday the summons of a venire of 200 men from which a jury to try the case is to be chosen began. The trial will be largely attended.

BUT ONE DAY REMAINS OF THE BONUS VOTE OFFER

This Week Fraught With Big Possibilities for Contestants.

Greatest Chance of Entire Contest is Passing.

TIME TO GET INTO THE GAME.

VOTING LIMIT.

From this time, until further notice, no candidate will be permitted to cast more than enough certificates, or pink slip votes, to place him more than 5,000 ahead of the leader at the preceding publication of scores.

For instance, if the leader of the entire contest has 20,000 votes to his credit at the last publication of scores, a candidate will not be allowed to vote more than enough certificates to make his score 25,000 in the next publication.

This restriction does not apply to the coupon votes clipped from The Sun or associate papers.

No candidate will be permitted to lead two days in succession if any other candidate has enough votes to pass him.

But one more day, twenty-four hours, remains of the period in which candidates in The Sun and Associate Newspapers' Great $10,000 Voting Contest have an opportunity to get in on the magnificent bonus vote offer.

Yesterday, this department tried to say that there was but one kind of time in this life—that's the present. The wisest contestants are not overlooking that fact. The bonus vote offer this week is the largest that will be made during the life of this big voting affair. There may be other bonus offers but they will never be as large.

That is why this week is the most important for YOU. You are also to remember that the scores appearing in each day's paper do not represent the exact standing of all candidates. Many of them have decided that it is not good policy to vote their full strength all the time. Others feel that a good showing is absolutely essential. Merely a difference in campaign methods, that's all.

Fasten Ballots Together.

The contest department would also like to urge on all candidates the necessity for fastening their daily ballots together. Sometimes as many as five hundred coupons come to this office loosely, and they become mixed up with the scores of other ballots that have been turned in. This means an endless amount of work and this department has decided that unless ballots are fastened together in some manner hereafter, they will not be counted.

Candidates are also asked to re-

WON'T MIX.

Had Food and Good Health Won't Mix.

The human stomach stands much abuse but it won't return good health if you give it bad food.

If you feed right you will feel right, for proper food and a good mind is the sure road to health.

"A year ago I became much alarmed about my health for I began to suffer after each meal no matter how little I ate," says a Denver woman.

"I lost my appetite and the very thought of food grew distasteful, with the result that I was not nourished and got weak and thin."

"My home cares were very heavy, for beside a large family of my own I have also to look out for an aged mother. There was no one to shoulder my household burdens, and come what might I must bear them, and this thought nearly drove me frantic when I realized that my health was breaking down."

"I read an article in the paper about some one with trouble just like mine being cured on Grape-Nuts food and acting on this suggestion I gave Grape-Nuts a trial. The first dish of this delicious food proved that I had struck the right thing."

"My uncomfortable feelings in stomach and brain disappeared as if by magic and in an incredibly short space of time I was again myself. Since then I have gained 12 pounds in weight through a summer of hard work and realize I am a very different woman, all due to the splendid food, Grape-Nuts."

"There's a Reason." Trial will prove. Read the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

member that all subscriptions to The Sun, when taken in counties where a newspaper is associated, must be "matched." That is if a subscription is taken for one year to one paper, it must be taken for a similar period for both. A one year and a six month's subscription do not "match," and there is no schedule of votes for such a combination.

Big Opportunity Here.

Tonight and tomorrow are fraught with great possibilities for active, alert, candidates. There is no reason why another bonus or two cannot be gathered in before the end of the present period. Remember, you get 35,000 extra votes for every $25 worth of NEW business turned in up to midnight Saturday, June 26, and 15,000 extra votes for every $25 worth of OLD business. It isn't an opportunity to be overlooked. Here is your chance. What are you going to do about it?

If your score in today's paper does not suit you, it is up to you to change it.

Wallerstein Says:

Talking of GOOD CLOTHES CHEAP Now is Your Chance

OF course you know the reason for our clearance sale—the mild weather and all that sort of thing. But the sale would have been held just the same. It is held every year. It is a fixed event. Only, as it happens, the mild weather helped to hold the goods back and we have greater bargains to offer in consequence—and greater assortments, as a matter of course. Naturally we will lose a little more profit than ordinarily, but who cares? We have had our season's profit and we are willing to lose a little to reduce the amount of our goods on hand.

You know, don't you, that this sale includes all the beautiful ROXBORO and Hart, Schaffner & Marx suits, which created such a sensation among dressy men this season—the rich stripes and neat hair lines, the grays, slates, tans, etc.; nothing is reserved. All of these are offered at the following great reductions:

Men's and Young Men's fancy blue and black suits that sold up to $40.00, now reduced to

$23.50

Personally appeared before me this June 12, 1909, R. D. MacMillen, business manager of The Sun, who affirms that the above statement of the circulation of The Sun for the month of May, 1909, is true to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Daily Thought.
Let every occasion be a great occasion for you cannot tell when fate may be taking your measure for a larger place.—Anon.

Cheer up. Six months from today will be Christmas.

We are a homogeneous, oleogonous people this kind of weather.

Those whimsical Chicago professors are simply by-products of our high-strung civilization.

Smithland is taking her first unsteady step in civic progress. She has a cow ordinance fight on.

Unintentionally yesterday The Evening Sun used a story, clipped from the Kentucky State Journal, concerning the vacation of the court of appeals without giving credit.

Human nature derives a deal of comfort from the comparatively greater misfortunes of others, and it may stimulate Paducah knockers to learn that Cairo's school census shows a decrease of 800 since last year, indicating a population of 18,000.

THE ETHICS OF IT.

Some people lump all ethics as casuistry.

Unthinking criticism was offered county officials and the physicians for trying to resuscitate George Freeman in order that he might be hanged. Our ethics sometimes become confused when we view things in perspective. To the casual observer, Freeman had to die anyway, and if he killed himself it made no difference. That was Freeman's view, all right; but not that of the physicians, for instance. With the hanging of Freeman they had nothing to do, nor did that enter into the ethics of the case. All they considered was that before them lay a human being, suffering from the effects of some drug, and it was their duty to resuscitate him if possible. The same ethics applied to the county officials. The attempted suicide of Freeman and his execution on the next day, were disconnected circumstances. The duty of the moment was to resuscitate the man if possible. Sufficient onto Friday is the evil thereof; and to have permitted the man to die without trying to save him, would have made them morally just as culpable, as if Freeman was to walk forth a free man on Friday instead of taking the drop of death.

But one may insist what makes the difference, how that Freeman is dead? This is the difference. The deliberate trial, conviction and execution of a man, leaves a blazed trail of inevitable sequence from the crime to the gallows, impressing upon the minds of all that the execution is the direct consequence of the murder. How many connect Freeman's suicide with the murder? The average mind will not say Freeman died as the result of a self-inflicted murder; but it dwells on the fact that he escaped the impressions, it finally arrives at the conclusion that Freeman actually committed murder and escaped punishment. Therefore Freeman, as a suicide, died in vain. There is no lesson for the unthinking, no warning of inevitable punishment under the law, and no deterring effect on crime.

BAILEY AND THE CONSUMER

Senator Bailey has discovered a new principle. He protests against free raw material, because, he says, it relieves the manufacturer of the burden, and throws the burden on the consumer, who must purchase the manufactured product, which is protected by the tariff. We wonder if Senator Bailey thinks the consumer doesn't pay the tariff on raw material, too, and on everything else on which a tariff is levied. Anyone, who says the consumer does not ultimately pay the tariff, is not wise. He pays all the incidentals, the wages, the cost of material, the transportation charges, the insurance, the risk and a profit; just as the renter pays the taxes on his landlord's property. Anything that enters into the cost of a thing, including taxes and interests, adds to the burden of the consumer. Senator Bailey must get that into his head.

That would knock the theory of the protective tariff into a cocked hat, if the population were divided into two distinct, never confused classes, the producer and the consumer. But all are consumers and all are producers. Producers of raw material—coal, iron, wood, corn, cotton, rice, sugar, oil—ask for a high tariff to keep out competition from abroad, and enable them to maintain the price they desire for their products. Now these men, farmers, planters, mine owners and timber men, are producers; but they also are consumers of the products of factories. Steel manufacturers, oil refiners, mill men and others, ask for a high tariff on their products, in order that they may pay the American wages and still compete in the home market with tariff manufactured in Europe, where wages are lower. They are producers; but they also are consumers of what the farmers raise, the miners dig out of the ground and the lumber men saw up.

In the mills and on the farms and in the stores are men and women working, who demand higher wages than are paid for similar wages in Europe. They are supposed to benefit by the high tariff, which operates to check the supply for the local demand. In that sense they are partakers in the profits of the producers, and yet they are consumers, as well. Now, the theory of the tariff is that by increasing the profits and enabling the higher wage scale to be met, the purchasing capacity of the individual is increased, thus increasing the demand for all kind of products, which must be supplied by home industries. This demand for the manufactured product increases the demand for raw material, which also benefits in price. So all are considered in one sense producers, who benefit by the tariff, and in another consumers, who pay the tariff. For instance an increased tariff on sugar might cost the average consumer as much as ten cents a year, while netting the trade millions of dollars.

That is theory of the Protective tariff. Whether one considers it the right theory is a matter of individual choice. Honest, intelligent men differ on the subject, and there are millions for and against it. But Bailey need shed no tears for the "ultimate consumer". That gentleman knows he has to foot all the bills, no matter what form they take, whether under free trade or protective tariff.

STATE PRESS.

Louisville Post.
The annual meeting of the Kentucky State Bar association, which is to take place at Paducah July 7 and 8 next, ought to be the most interesting and important that this body has ever held.

Mr. Wickersham, attorney general of the United States, will be present and will deliver an address upon an interesting subject, "State Legislation Regarding Foreign Corporations." Circuit Judge Robert L. Stout, of the Frankfort district, will speak on the subject, "Where the Law Falls," and several important committees, which were appointed at the last meeting, will report, notably a committee of which Mr. W. H. Mackoy, of Covington, is chairman, and which is expected to make some suggestions relative to new taxation laws in Kentucky.

The Kentucky State Bar association is a most respectable body and probably contains among its members more men of ability than any other organization in the state. It has done some excellent work during the eight years of its existence, and its sessions have grown in interest as years passed.

Where the Evening Post thinks the State Bar association falls is that no apparent effort is made to carry out the many excellent recommendations made each year. We have no doubt that Mr. Mackoy will read an instructive paper upon new tax laws, but will the association take any steps to see that the legislature considers Mr. Mackoy's suggestions? Judge Stout's paper will also be worth hearing, and Judge Stout will no doubt tell the lawyers what changes are needed in the criminal code. Will the attorneys do anything to see that those changes are made?

should appoint a legislative committee to go to Frankfort whenever the general assembly meets and give to the legislature the benefit of the bar association's experience and learning. Otherwise most of the fruits of such meetings as will take place at Paducah next month are lost.

Courier-Journal.

Considering that business conditions were greatly depressed in 1908 the coal mining industry of the western district of Kentucky has made a good showing. The figures as given out from the office of the inspector of mines show a total output of 5,634,596 tons.

In point of production Muhlenberg county is at the top of the list with 1,774,314 tons. Hopkins county is a close second with 1,772,553. Ohio county comes third in the list with 602,317. Webster and Union are close together in the order named with a total of 558,442 tons in the former and 513,015 in the latter. Henderson county makes a return of 226,152 tons. Of the remaining counties in the district McLean produced 97,287 tons; Daviess, 52,658; Christian, 33,191; and Butler, 4,968.

With the return of business and industrial prosperity and with the progress of development the present year should show a material increase in production. The coal mining industry of western Kentucky is attaining larger proportions every year. More and more it is attracting the attention of the outside world and in recent years large sums have been expended by eastern capitalists in the development of new mines.

There yet remain in western Kentucky vast coal fields either undeveloped or practically untouched. This coal at no distant day will be needed in the markets of the world. Capital will seek it out as other fields are exhausted or abandoned; new veins will be tested by the miner's pick and shovel; new methods will be introduced which will largely increase production and new towns and cities will spring up while old ones are reviewed.

It needs no prophetic eye to foresee that great things are in store for western Kentucky's extensive coal district.

SOME STORIES AROUND TOWN.

With the arrival in Paducah of the Rev. George M. Connor, assistant pastor of St. Francis de Sales church, Paducah is not only benefited by the addition of a clean minded, progressive, intellectual young man in the community, but by becoming the home of a clever periodical which Father Connor has been editing at Owensboro under the title of the Owensboro Quarterly and Review. The first number was issued last December and it is full of good things. The last issue contained a poem, of which Father Connor is especially proud. It is written by Miss Cecilia Lawton Lindsey, and is entitled "Mammon."

I'm the great God of Mammon, I measure your worth, And hold you as bondmen, ye men of the earth. True gods have arisen for you to adore, I sacked all their altars—ye built them no more.

Ye know I am faithless, for ages untold I've lured you to death with the glint of my gold. Ye follow and freeze in the grim arctic night, Or die in the deserts' Inferno of light.

I'm Mammon, the heartless. With back to the east There passes the Indian I robbed for my feast, And faces of children—gaunt, starving and old—Are sweet to my vision when stamped on my gold.

I am older than time, and younger than youth, I'm feasted and worshipped, but this is the truth: I'm glutton and rotting, men's blood is my drink, But I'm god of the world 'till the day that ye THINK.

KILLS THE GERMS

That's the Only Way to Cure Dandruff, and Parisian Sage Is the Only Killer.

"Parisian Sage," said a New York barber, "will kill the destructive and persistent germs of dandruff, and abolish the disease. There may be other remedies that will do the same, but I never heard of one."

And just read what one of the foremost barbers of Springfield, Mass., says of Parisian Sage:

Dear Sirs: I used Parisian Sage and found it better than any other. It is the best hair restorer I ever used, and I have used them all. I find it a great dandruff remover also. You should get it into all the barber shops, and get the barbers to use it, as it is great.—Geo. A. Stiltz, 73 1/2 Main street, Springfield, Mass.

Parisian Sage soaks into the scalp, and when it reaches the roots of the hair it not only kills every dandruff germ, but it supplies the hair with put vigor and strength into it and make it grow.

Parisian Sage is the most delightful hair dressing in the world. It makes women's hair soft, silky and luxuriant. Use it one week and you will like it.

Parisian Sage is guaranteed by Gilbert's drug store to stop falling hair, to cure dandruff, to keep hair from fading, to cure itching of the scalp, or money back.

ARMED MEN OPEN FLOOD GATE.

Colorado Springs, Col., June 25.—

Six armed men, believed to be from Victor, Col., early today held up Caretaker Arthur, of the Colorado Springs water system, opened the flood gates on Pike's Peak and turned 174,000,000 gallons of water into the Victor reservoir. Caretaker Arthur was held a prisoner for some time while the water was being run off, but managed to elude his captors and telephone this city for help.

Sheriff Birdsall, of El Paso county with a posse of ten men immediately left for the scene of the hold-up.

The water supplies for Colorado Springs and the Cripple Creek district are located in slopes of Pike's Peak and disputes over them are frequent, causing friction between the two cities. Victor was said to be short of water. Colorado Springs is reported to have an ample supply even after the diversion of today.

Not Troubled.

Among the patients in the private ward of a Philadelphia hospital there was recently a testy old millionaire of that city, whose case gave his physician considerable difficulty at first.

"Well," asked the crusty old patient one morning, "how do you find me now, eh?"

"You're getting on fine," responded the doctor, rubbing his hands with an air of satisfaction. "Your legs are still swollen; but that doesn't trouble me."

"Of course it doesn't!" howled the old man. "And let me tell you this: If your legs were swollen, it wouldn't trouble me, either!"

Mary Bolling to the Hon. Dudley Porter, which is to take place at the First Methodist church of this city the 21st of July. The ceremony will be said by the bride's father, Dr. W. T. Bolling, who is pastor of the M. E. church.
Dr. Bolling is prominently known in church circles over this state, having filled pulpits in many of the best charges, at one time having been pastor of one of the leading churches in Memphis. He is state commissioner chaplain of Governor Patterson's staff.

His daughter is a woman of grace and culture, whose friends are legion here.

Porter and the late Gen. J. D. C.
Atkins. He was elected for the Eighth congressional district in the last presidential election and is an announced candidate for congressional honors in 1910. The marriage will be quite a notable event in society here."

VEGETARIANISM AND SPAGHETTI

Faust Brand Spaghetti adds a new joy to vegetarianism because it is not limited to a single dish. In fact no other daily food can be served in such a great variety of appetite-tempting ways. And how nourishing it is!
Wonderfully strength-producing and sustaining, and so easy on the digestion. It is a food that means family health
—food economy, and satisfaction in the kitchen.
Think of it! No matter how many "picknickers" people there are in the family, there can be a new treat every day to second or last course. And no matter how often it has been served before, the cook will never be at a loss to serve it a new way. That's Faust Spaghetti. Sold only in sealed packages. All grocers, five and ten cents. Write for free book of useful recipes.

$10,000,000 TO TAKE CENSUS.
Appropriation Authorized by House—
Census Bureau Saved.

Washington, June 25.—On the eve of the expiration of the current fiscal emergency appropriation of $10,000, 000 for defraying the expenses of taking the thirteenth decennial census. In presenting the bill for that purpose, Tawney, chairman of the committee on appropriations, explained the situation with respect to the permanent census measure still in conference and announced that unless money was forthcoming, the census bureau would be compelled to suspend all business next Wednesday.

Notwithstanding this warning the bill went with much opposition and it was only finally passed after Macon, of Arkansas, had forced a roll call on the point of no quorum.

To get members for this vote the sergeant-at-arms and his deputies scoured the capitol under orders of Speaker Cannon. The members reached the chamber in droves.
About 80 of them were found comfortably seated in the senate, listening to the tariff debate.

Adjourned until Monday.

Self-Forgetful.
President Taft is fond of children, which whom he is a favorite. A charming story on this head comes from Cincinnati.

Once, when a pretty Cincinnati girl was a child of six or seven, Mr.
Taft, calling at her house, found nobody home excepting herself. She entertained him a little while, and when he rose to go, he stooped down and kissed her.

"Here's one," he said, "for the baby. Here is another for little Jim.
And here is a third for Billie-boy."

The little girl, drawing herself up, said haughtily—she had been reading a novel:
"He bent down again.
"So I did," he laughed. "Well,
here's one for myself."

leged confession of his wife's intimacy with her nephew. The latter was a medical student and Boyajan's secretary.

Rattle With Insane Negro.

Johnson and Emma Jackson led a posse to the woods where Wilson was hiding. Wilson shot and killed both women and then killed himself, pulling the trigger with his toe.

Elderly People Helped Free

The last years of life are the sweetest, and yet the most difficult to prolong. It is then that the greatest care is exercised in maintaining bodily health. But the chief care should always be with regard to the food you eat and whether you are digesting it properly. You should not allow yourself to become constipated.

No doubt you have tried salts and cathartic pills, purgative tablets, etc., and have come to the conclusion that they are violent in action and do but temporary good. Listen, then, to the voice of experience with regard to a wonderful and mild laxative, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is not new, only we are trying to find new friends for it.

A. A. Feltz, of Johnston City, Ill., suffered from stomach trouble for six years and found his cure in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. His wife uses it too with success. We could name hundreds of others. Some heard of it first through neighbors or friends; others through the doctor's offer to send any sufferer from a stomach, liver or bowel complaint a free sample bottle for trial, without charge.

If you will send your name and address he will send you a trial bottle direct to your home. If it proves itself as he claims they continue the treatment by buying a 50-cent or $1 bottle of your druggist, as all of them sell it. Old people, like children, should look for purity, and it is well to mention that the purity of this remedy is vouchsafed by the U. S. government. Also, though a free bottle is sent to prove its merits, results are always guaranteed from the regular bottles bought of druggists, who will refund your money if it does not satisfy you. Send at least for the free test bottle today.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 507 Caldwell Bldg., Monticello, Ill.

TRAGEDY IN MARYLAND WILL NEVER BE EXPLAINED.

Woman Was Mrs. Woodill of Los Angeles—Was Adopted When Child By Capt. Thompson.

BOYS FOUND BODY IN A CREEK

St. Michaels, Md., June 25.—Edmet Roberts, a newspaper and magazine writer, alleged slayer of Mrs. Mabel Thompson Woodill, was shot and killed by a sheriff's posse while resisting arrest on the wharf at McDaniel, Talbot county, at 4 o'clock this morning.

J. T. Roberts was wanted in connection with the murder of Mrs. Edith May Woodill, wife of Gilbert Woodill, an automobile dealer of Los Angeles, Cal., whose nude body with the skull crushed in from a blow apparently delivered from behind, the face horribly disfigured, the entire body immersion in the water, and weighted down with an iron pot containing half a dozen bricks, was discovered by boys who were crabbing in Back creek, not far from the home of Mrs. Woodill's foster father, Capt. Charles H. Thompson, a few miles from here. Roberts was with Mrs. Woodill when she was seen for the last time. The motive for the crime is a mystery.

Came to Spend Summer. Mr. and Mrs. Woodill came here early this month, the latter with the intention of spending the summer with her foster father. Her husband remained only a few days, intending to return to Los Angeles. From that

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what this letter." — Mrs. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter." — Mrs. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.

time Mrs. Woodill and Roberts are said to have seen each of each other. Last Saturday Mrs. Woodill and Roberts met at Royal Oak and drove together to the landing where his launch was moored. They entered the launch and Mrs. Woodill was not seen again alive, as far as has been learned.

Since her disappearance Roberts made a trip to Baltimore, from which point a letter was received by Captain Thompson, ostensibly from Mrs. Woodill saying that she was in the city and would return shortly. Roberts remained in this neighborhood until after the finding of the body. He had previously endeavored to allay the growing uneasiness of Captain Thompson, it was said, about his foster daughter's absence, and used the letter referred to as evidence in support of his contention that she was all right and would soon return.

Body Badly Swollen. When the body was brought ashore it was so badly swollen that identification was difficult. After the body had been positively identified and the suspicion began to point to Roberts, he visited a lively stable here kept by Justice of the Peace Wiley and A. H. Radcliffe and tried to hire a team.

Radcliffe remarked to his partner that the applicant for the team was under suspicion but Wiley did not feel justified in detaining him at the time. Later, however, he telephoned the boarding house of George Taylor and made inquiries about Roberts and mentioned that he was suspected of murder. Roberts was beside Taylor during the conversation and learning of the suspicion against him, remarked: "If that's the case, I will not go to Baltimore."

A few minutes later it was discovered that he had disappeared and that he had taken Taylor's shift.

Found Her Clothes. Investigation since made indicates that when Roberts and Mrs. Woodill left here they went in the launch to a bungalow that is being built on Roberts' small farm, near that of Captain Thompson, and that in this bungalow the murder was committed. There were found a bloody sheet and mattress and portions of a woman's clothes, partly burned. These have been identified as having belonged to Mrs. Woodill.

There was also found in the bungalow a pair of corduroy trousers in the pocket of which two letters were found, one believed to have been from Mrs. Woodill and to have some connection with the meeting at Royal Oak.

The room in which these things were found showed evidences of a struggle having taken place.

Was Married Twice. Mrs. Woodill is said to have been married to Woodill about a year ago. She is said, also, to have been previously married to a physician of New York city, whose name, however, could not be learned. There is a mystery, too, about the parentage of the dead woman, who, Captain Thompson says, was 22 years old and who was obtained by him when she was but two years old, from the family of a street car man in Minneapolis.

Alone in Saw Mill at Midnight, unmindful of dampness, drafts, storms or cold, W. J. Atkins worked as Night Watchman, at Banner Springs, Tenn. Such exposure gave him a severe cold that settled on his lungs. At last he had to give up work. He tried many remedies but all failed till he used Dr. King's New Discovery. "After using one bottle," he writes, "I went back to work as well as ever." Severe Colds, Stomach Coughs, Inflamed Throats and sore lungs, Hemorrhages, Croup and Whooping Cough get quick relief and prompt cure from this glorious medicine. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free, guaranteed by all druggists.

REICHSTAG ADDS TO DIFFICULTIES

REJECTED BILL EXTENDING INHERITANCE TAX.

Parliament May Be Dissolved, But Nothing Definite Is Permitted to Leak Out.

BUELOW MIGHT RESIGN POST.

Berlin, June 25.—The Reichstag added further to the government's difficulties, in its proposed financial reforms by rejecting a vote of 194 to 186 the imperial ministry's bill to extend the inheritance tax to direct heirs, including widows and children. The president of the reichstag announced this afternoon that the bill in its present form would be dropped. The parliament house was crowded throughout the debate. Chancellor Von Buelow did not address the chamber and left when he learned that the voting was likely to be unfavorable.

Speeches were exceedingly bitter, especially those of the conservatives, and the national liberals, who hitherto had formed a coalition supporting the chancellor. There was much cheering and some times ironical laughter, as the orators expressed the views of the party leaders. The conservatives, Centerists, Poles, Alsacians and Independents united to form a majority against the government. The Imperial Conservatives, National Liberals, Radicals and Socialists voted in favor of the measure.

It is rumored that the Reichstag shortly will adjourn until autumn to permit the government to revise its financial scheme.

Other reports say the parliament will be dissolved or that Buelow will resign, but nothing definite is permitted to leak out.

LOSES LIFE IN THE RIVER

But Girl Makes Heroic Attempt to Save Her Companion.

The following dispatch tells how Miss Conway, sister of Mrs. Quinlan, of Paducah, met death:

Miss Conway, daughter of J. P. Conway, of Winchester, was drowned about fifty yards below Lock No. 10 yesterday. She had come out from town with a party of friends to spend the day on the river. She and her companion, Miss Ella Bush, were wading along the bank, when they came to a log. Thinking of no danger, Miss Conway got upon the log and lost her balance, rolling over into the deep water. Miss Bush jumped into the water after her and was almost drowned when two boys jumped in and saved Miss Bush. Miss Conway sank.

NO MORE GRAY HAIR

It is easier to preserve the color of the hair than to restore it, although it is possible to do both. Our grandmothers understood the secret. They made and used a "sage tea" and their dark, glossy hair long after middle life was due to this fact. Our mothers have gray hairs before they are fifty, but they are beginning to appreciate the wisdom of our grandmothers in using "sage tea" for their hair, and are fast following suit. The present generation has the advantage of the past in that it can get a ready to use preparation called

IN MEMORIAM
Hannah T. C. Banks.

Resolutions adopted by the Baraca and Philathea Bible classes of the Fountain Avenue Methodist church, South, Paducah, Kentucky:

Whereas, It has pleased Our Father to call to her rest in his everlasting arms our sister, Mrs. Hannah T. C. Banks, the beloved wife of George W. Banks, our friend and pastor, and

Whereas, We feel that, in the loss of this dear sister, we have a part in the sorrow of our beloved pastor and wish to extend to him our sympathy and love; therefore we resolve

That, when this noble and beautiful life closed, its mission on earth on June eleventh, the church and class lost one whose words of cheer and kindness and whose cordial greeting, ready for all, left in our hearts a lasting impression of a beautiful faith and a loving life.

That we shall miss her from her place in the church and in her home where her presence was a benediction and her life a lesson.

That the close of this gentle life with all its charms of simple faith and kindly toil for other's good should be a priceless memory to us all, and should cause us to see that we owe a debt to all such who strive to do the work that lies at hand, to bind up the wounds of those who suffer, to lift up the fallen, to speak words of hope and cheer, and at all times to serve the Master who lived and died in the service of man.

That to our pastor, who has by his fireside an empty chair, and in his heart a void that can never be filled until he, too, passes the Valley of the Shadow, we can offer only inadequate expressions of our sorrow; and only such comfort in this dark hour, as poor human words can convey. When we picture to him what she was, we only magnify his loss. When we say he will miss her gentle presence, her cheerful words, her dear companionship, we say what needs no words to him. We feel that it is ours to grasp his hand and have him know that we mourn with him and that we hope by our loving friendship to lighten the burden of his sorrow; while the healing of the wound must be left to the Great Physician who has promised rest to the heavy laden and comfort to those who suffer.

That we would fain hold in our midst all those who make life worth living, striving against death for our loved ones and disputing with all the means at our command the final victory of the grave. We cry out in our agony and our vision is clouded in the vale. We cling to the last hope of life and try with all our might to avert the final parting. But when the river is crossed and the souls of our dearest rest in the shade of the trees on the river's brink, who could wish to call back to earth and its toils and troubles those spirits basking in the light of the Master's smile? We are assured that the mansions of God are prepared for such as our departed sister, and we commend to our afflicted pastor the thought that she awaits him there and that, in the work to which the Master has called him, he pleases not only the Lord of the vineyard, but her whose gentle spirit we may well believe will abide with him.

through life; for love is stronger than death.

To the classes and societies of the church to which she gave of her time and of her best efforts, it must be a dear and cherished memory that in her last hours the thoughts of these and her duties in them occupied her mind. Her devotion to the causes she held dear and the sacrifices she made that her obligations to them might not fall of fulfillment were well known to her friends. The alabaster box of precious ointment was ever ready for her Master's feet. To these societies we say in consolation for their great loss that she stands now in the presence of One, the searcher of hearts, who knows our sister's life and work and whose words of approval are worth more than the united applause of the world, and whose reward is greater than all the kingdoms of earth could bestow. And let us remember that, "When we step across the drawbridge of death, it is not a foreign land we enter, but our native home."

SPEED LIMIT ASKED BY OWNERS OF GENERAL COUNCIL.

Would Slow Down to Six Around the Corners and Teh in Business Section.

ALDERMEN MET LAST NIGHT

Autoists of the city petitioned the board of aldermen, which met in regular session last night, to enact an ordinance, permitting automobiles to run at a speed of 15 miles an hour. The petition was signed by 36 automobile owners and with the petition was a copy of an ordinance, which the autoists wish to have passed by both boards of the general council. The petition and the copy of the ordinance were referred to the ordinance committee. The ordinance if passed will allow the auto runner to run at the rate of six miles going around corners and at street intersections, ten miles an hour on Broadway between First and Seventh streets and 15 miles an hour in other parts of the city. The fine for a breach of this ordinance will be set by the general council. Automobileists must also keep on the right side of the street. Quart liquor licenses were granted to the Century Liquor company at 125 North Fourth street and to Elliott & Burke at 111 South Second street. Both these firms came to this city from Memphis.

A communication from Lycurgus Rice, Thomas Clayton, W. L. Bennett and M. B. Austin, residents of Jefferson street between Fifteenth and Sixteenth streets, asking to be released from a petition to connect in one sewer district when they live in another was received and filed.

Street Ordinances.

The street committee, consisting of Aldermen Sherrill, Durrett and Potter, was appointed by President Hannan to act with Mayor Smith to wait on the officials of the Illinois Central railroad and other property owners in regard to opening Kentucky avenue to Gehel avenue. Alderman Potter made the motion for the opening of this street.

An ordinance, providing for the construction of sidewalks and curb and gutters on both sides of Eleventh street between Broadway and Jefferson street, was given first and second passage.

An ordinance, providing for the building of Seventeenth street from Broadway south of B street, was given first passage. The property owners are to bear the expense of the construction of the street, all but the intersections and build the culvert over Bradshaw creek.

The market house ordinance and the sewerage and plumbing ordinance were both given first and second passage.

Accounts amounting to $6,122.53 for the first half June were allowed.

Residents of Clay street, between Fifteenth and Nineteenth streets, asked the city to put a street light at the intersection of either Sixteenth or Seventeenth streets. The communication was referred to the board of public works.

Residents of North Fourteenth street between Trimble and Flournoy streets asked for an extension of the water mains. The request was referred to the city water company.

A communication from H. Well & Son, asking exemption from taxation of a distillery plant, located in Mechanicsburg, for a period of five years, was referred to the ordinance committee.

Mrs. H. H. Worley was granted a deed to lot 62, block AA in Oak Grove cemetery.

Mrs. Reed, in a communication, informed the board that she wished to make a sewer connection with her property located at Fourth and Tennessee streets, but she could not do it without going across some other property. On a request of Mr. Hoffman, the city will make a sewer connection with his place at 327 North Eighth street, as was ordered done in 1903 and was paid for by Mr. Hoffman.

The action of the board of public works was ratified in paying Jewell & Son $400, as the first installment for the erection of the stack at the light plant, and the payment of $1,122 to the Babcock-Wilcox Boiler company on the arrival of the boilers in this city for the light plant.

The action of the lower board was concurred in, allowing $15 for an expert to examine the city hall and the Baptist church clocks to find out what will be the necessary repairs.

Jaffer Clark will be furnished with sufficient varnish to brighten up the furniture in the council chamber.

The board adjourned to Thursday night, July 1, to pass on several revised ordinances.

Members present were: Aldermen Hannan, Durrett, Hank, Lackey, Oehlshlaeger, Potter and Sherrill. Alderman Stewart was absent.

CURED WITHOUT A MARK BY CUTICURA

"About a year and eight months ago my baby, aged ten months, was sitting on the mat beside the fender and we were preparing the breakfast when the frying-pan full of boiling grease was upset and it went all over one side of the baby's face and head. One of the family ran and wiped the scald with a towel and you may think what a mess she made, pulling the entire skin off. We took her to a chemist who told us to get a doctor, which we did. He tended her a week and gave me some stuff like lard to put on. But it all festered and I thought the baby was disfigured for life. A woman close beside me told me to try Cuticura Ointment. I used about three boxes and it was wonderful how it healed. In about five weeks it was better and there wasn't a mark to tell where the scald had been. People used to ask me if that was the baby that was scalded and they would hardly believe me when I told them she was and what cured her face. Her skin is just like velvet and I have never been without Cuticura since. Cuticura cured three other children of ringworm besides, so I have good cause to thank it for what it has done. Mrs. Hare, 1, Henry St., South Shields, Durham, England, March 22, 1908."

"HOUSE OF SEVEN GABLES"

Has Been Purchased by Massachusetts Woman for Settlement Work.

Salem, Mass., June 25.—"The House of Seven Gables," around which Nathaniel Hawthorne wove one of his best known and most characteristic tales, has been purchased by Mrs. George R. Emmerton and will be turned into a house for settlement work.

The house was built in 1662 and originally had seven gables. In remodeling, 40 years ago, most of these gables were removed and much modernized, but the places where the seven gable windows were are easily discernible today on the inside.

The place in American literature that the old house gained as the theme and title of Hawthorne's story made it secure against the advance of modern business.

HARTFORD EXPECTS TO BENEFIT BY IT.

Western Kentucky Branch to Open Up New Territory Soon.

EVANSVILLE IS INTERESTED

Following the publication in the Republican last week, says the Hartford Republican, of the story to the effect that the M. H. & E. railroad will probably form a connecting link for a trunk line of railroad from Louisville to St. Louis and from St. Louis to the south, a Carmi, Ill., dispatch to the Journal News of Evansville, Ind., calls attention to the action of the L. & N. officials in attempting to procure a right-of-way over the Shawneetown levee, which the correspondent of that paper thinks is convincing evidence that that company intends to cross the river at Shawneetown, with its road in the manner we stated it would.

The dispatch says: "The citizens of Shawneetown are much exercised over the way the L. & N. and B. & O. railways are sparring for the use of the famous levee at that place, each seeming to desire a right-of-way thereon. The B. & O. had a right-of-way on the levee years ago, but lost the franchise by reason of not occupying the same, and now the L. & N. has made overtures to the city council for the right, saying they would like to extend their tracks thereon. This will bring the station up town, but the thing that interests Shawneetownites is the fact that they believe the real reason for wanting the levee is their purpose to cross the river at that place."

The road some time ago extended their line from Providence to Morganfield, Ky., within a few miles of Shawneetown and this would save them five hours in a direct line from St. Louis to the south. Since the occupying of the levee with their tracks by the B. & O. for the reason that occupancy meant maintenance, and the floods were hard to control, it is believed that the L. & N. would not think of occupying the same unless there was a desire to cross the river. Shawneetown offers $100,000 if the bridge is built.

Taking our "Trunk Line" story as a text and quoting liberally therefrom, the Courier-Journal discusses the new railroad at length editorially.

Omitting its quotations from The Republican it says:

"A new railroad which will form an important connecting link is being built from Madisonville by way of Smallhouse, Centertown and Hartford to a point on the Louisville, Henderson & St. Louis railroad, probably at or near Irvington. The enterprise has already reached the track-laying stage and many miles of the road are practically completed. There are some indications that it may develop into a more ambitious project than is contemplated in the immediate scheme of construction, but railroad builders are never very communicative and the presumption of a larger plan is merely speculative. The line, at any rate, will develop a new territory. It extends across a strip of country every foot of which is underlaid by coal deposits and its construction is sure to be followed by the opening of a number of new mines.

"Hartford, a good inland town, which has no direct railroad facilities at present, will be put in closer touch with the world and will see the realization of years of effort to secure such connection. Hartford has witnessed the rise and fall of a number of railroad schemes and after a season of hope long deferred, her citizens are doubtless in a frame of mind to celebrate with exceeding great joy the coming of the iron horse. It takes a good many paper railroads to make a real, tangible railroad, with right of way, tracks and equipment. Hartford is to be congratulated that one of her fondest dreams is about to be realized.

Whether the road is to materialize into a trunk line is a matter for the future to decide. For the present there is the assurance of an important addition to the railway mileage of the state, passing in part through an undeveloped country, putting isolated towns in touch with the outside world and promising material additions to Kentucky's mines and mineral output. This of itself is cause for gratification, not only to those who are to feel the quickening thrill of a new artery of commerce, but to all who are interested in the progress and prosperity of the commonwealth."

Strung for 15 Years

HILDRETH WINS

ANOTHER EVENT

HIS FITZHERBERT CAPTURES A SUBURBAN HANDICAP.

Alfred Noble Second—Race Worth
$5,000 to Winner—Fitzherbert
Five Lengths in Lead.

THIRD WINNING FOR HILDRETH.

New York, June 25.—Fitzherbert, the sturdy three-year-old son of Ethelbert-Morganatic, easily won the suburban handicap from six other starters, one of the smallest fields that has ever contested for the honors of the classic event of the American turf. Bearing the colors of Sam Hildreth, the sleek brown horse, with Eddie Dugan up, went the distance of a mile and a quarter in 2:03 2-5, only 2-5 of a second slower than the record for the event hung up by Ealot last year, and 3-5 of a second slower than the best record for a mile and a quarter made by Broomstick in 1904.

The horses got off at the first attempt with Fitzherbert out in front closely followed by Alfred Noble, Fashion Plate, Restigouche, King's Daughter and Fayette in the order of their naming. Alfred Noble soon took the lead, Restigouche going to second place and Fitzherbert third. At the half mile Restigouche passed Noble and was leading by half a length.

At the mile Restigouche still led but was faltering. Swinging into the stretch with an unflagging stride, Fitzherbert came out in front with such a burst of speed that it virtually carried the other contenders off their feet. Unchallenged now the horse steadily increased his lead. Behind, Alfred Noble fought on gamely but to no purpose. Fayette rushed out ahead of the tiring Restigouche and King's Daughter in the stretch and took third place.

Through the lines of cheering thousands, Fitzherbert ran to the finish six lengths ahead of Alfred Noble, while five lengths away was Fayette. Far in the rear King's Daughter, the western crack, Restigouche and Fashion Plate plunged along and finished in the order named.

Summary.

Suburban handicap, $5,000 for 3 year olds and upwards, one mile and a quarter:

Fitzherbert, 4 to 5, won.
Alfred Noble, 5 to 1, second.
Fayette, 5 to 1, third.
Time, 2:03 2-5.

This makes the third of the great events of the Metropolitan turf captured by Hildreth this year, his King James having won both the Metropolitan and Brooklyn handicaps.

Hays & Miller, Paducah, Ky.
Gentlemen: I wish voluntarily to certify that I have tried Hays' Specific for liver trouble and chills and found it an excellent cure for them and can highly recommend it to any one. Yours truly,

GEORGE H. BROWN.

Paducah, Ky., June 16, 1909.

Gentlemen: I have had ample opportunity to test and observe the genuine merits of your Specific. At first I hesitated to invest in it, as so many things are being offered the trade that come short of their recommendation, but as it was guaranteed to give satisfaction, or money refunded, I placed an order April 20. Since that time I have sold a GROSS. I have not been requested to refund a dollar. Brother, if you wait for Hays' Specific to die, you will die waiting, for it is one remedy that will advertise itself, as soon as a few bottles are put in a community. The people keep it going by telling each other.

IMMORALITY TAUGHT.

Serious Charges Brought Against University of Chicago.

Chicago, June 25.—Charges of teaching atheism and spreading ideas of immorality among students were brought against the University of Chicago today by Rev. Johnston Myers, pastor of Immanuel Baptist church and trustee of the divinity department of the university.

"The University of Chicago stands charged with teaching atheism and spreading immoral ideas among its students," declared Dr. Myers, "and I can mention samples to back up my statements. You know that Parker Sercomb left the university faculty to establish a free love colony. Prof. Behan left there and became an anarchist, having expounded the anarchistic propaganda even while there. Prof. Zueblin attracted much attention by defending Maxim Gorky, when the latter traveled through America with the Russian actress and Oscar Trigg's affairs are still fresh in the public mind. The University of Chicago will soon have outlived its usefulness."

Edna May's Husband O. K.

New York, June 25.—Oscar Lewishohn, the New York broker, husband of Edna May, reported killed in an automobile accident in Germany, cabled his brother today that he is visiting his sister in England and there was no accident.
